

Our School Values are Love, Courage and Respect

These core values provide us with a firm foundation for living, loving and learning together at our school. Within a Christian ethos, we aim to create a caring community where high standards of teaching and learning enable all our children to develop the skills and knowledge that they will need for life long learning. We foster the spirit of enquiry in our children, coupled with a sense of self-worth. Individual talents and contributions are valued and celebrated.

This policy complies with the statutory requirement laid out in the SEND Code of Practice 0 to 25 (January 2015) and is supported by the schools SEN Information Report which is published on our website.

Hampshire County Council have published their 'Local Offer', which provides information about services that are available for children and young people from birth to 25 who have Special Educational Needs and/or Disabilities.

The Special Needs Co-ordinator (SENCo) is Mrs Angela Baverstock and the Special Needs Governor is Mr Charles Walters. The SENCO regularly attends the Local Authority's SENCO circle network meetings in order to keep up to date with local and national updates in SEND

1. Our aims

- At Andrews' Endowed School we value the abilities of all the pupils.
- We recognise that children learn at different rates, and that there are many factors that affect achievement, including ability, maturity and emotional state. Many pupils may experience difficulties at some point in their school career.
- We believe that all pupils have the same entitlement to the whole school curriculum and we are committed to making this accessible to all pupils whatever their needs.
- We aim to identify these needs as early as possible.
- We believe that Special Needs is a whole school issue.

2. Our Objectives

- To ensure that all children with SEN are offered full access to a broad, balanced and appropriate mainstream curriculum
- Identify and provide for pupils who have special educational needs or additional needs.
- To designate a member of staff to be responsible for co-ordinating SEN provision – the SENCO
- To inform parents when the school is making special educational provision for their child.
- Regularly review and monitor the progress of the children on the SEN register
- Provide support and advice for all staff working with special educational needs.

- Work within the guidance of the Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Code of Practice

3. Legislation and guidance

This policy and information report is based on the statutory Special Educational Needs and Disability \(SEND\) Code of Practice and the following legislation:

- Part 3 of the Children and Families Act 2014, which sets out schools' responsibilities for pupils with SEN and disabilities
- The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014, which set out schools' responsibilities for Education, Health and Care (EHC) plans, SEN co-ordinators (SENCOs) and the SEN information report

4. Definitions

A pupil has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for them. They have a learning difficulty or disability if they have:

- A significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age, or
- A disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools

Special educational provision is educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made generally for other children or young people of the same age by mainstream schools

The Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Code of Practice: 0 to 25 (2015) provides an overview of the range of needs, which is divided into 4 broad categories:

- Communication and Interaction - this includes children with speech and language delay, impairments or disorders, hearing impairment, and those who demonstrate features within the autistic spectrum.
- Cognition and Learning - this includes children who demonstrate features of moderate, severe or profound learning difficulties or specific learning difficulties or specific learning difficulties such as dyslexia, dyscalculia, dysgraphia or dyspraxia.
- Social, Mental and Emotional Health -this includes children who may be withdrawn or isolated, disruptive or disturbing, hyperactive or lack concentration.
- Sensory and/or Physical Needs - this includes children with sensory, multisensory and physical difficulties.

5. Roles and responsibilities

5.1 The Headteacher is responsible for:

- Working closely with the SENCO to ensure provision for pupils with SEN in the school
- Overall responsibility for the provision and progress of learners with SEN and/or a disability
- Advise on the deployment of the school's delegated budget and other resources to meet pupils' needs effectively
- Working with the SENCO and Governing body to ensure that the school meets its responsibilities under the Equality Act 2010 with regard to reasonable adjustments and access arrangements

5.2 The SENCO is responsible for:

- Working with the Headteacher and SEN governor to determine the SEN provision in the school
- The day-to-day responsibility for the operation of this SEN policy and the co-ordination of specific provision made to support individual pupils with SEN, including those who have EHC plans
- Monitoring the impact of support and interventions and how they can be linked to classroom practice
- Providing professional guidance to colleagues to ensure that pupils with SEN receive appropriate support and high quality teaching
- Advising on the graduated approach to providing SEN support using the 'Assess – Plan - Do – Review' cycle
- Being the point of contact for external agencies, especially the local authority and its support services. Parents will be kept fully informed of any outside agency involvement with their child.
- Liaising with pre – schools and secondary schools to ensure pupils and their parents are informed about options and a smooth transition is planned
- Ensuring the school keeps the records of all pupils with SEN up to date
- Providing staff with appropriate regular in-service training in SEN matters
- Monitoring the differentiated curriculum provided for pupil with SEN and support the team with their planning.
- Providing information to the governing body as to the number of pupils identified as having SEN at each stage. The achievement of SEN pupils will be summarised.
- Liaising with the SEN Governor to discuss current SEN concerns.

5.3 The SEN Governor is responsible for:

- Monitoring the effective implementation of the SEN policy
- Regular liaison with the SENCO
- Working with the Headteacher and SENCO to report to the Governing Body.

5.4 Class teachers are responsible for:

- The progress and development of all pupils, including those with SEND.
- Working closely with teaching assistants or specialist staff to plan and assess the impact of support and interventions and how the provision can be linked to classroom teaching
- Ensure plans and records are up to date to provide evidence for the support provided.
- Children's Pupil Passports and Individual Behaviour Plans (IBPs) are reviewed termly or more often if needed and work with the SENCO to review targets and create new ones

- Staff and parents will work together to ensure a positive partnership of support for pupils identified with SEN through regular liaison.
- Class teachers set suitable targets, respond to pupils' diverse learning needs and overcome potential barriers to learning and assessment for both individuals and groups of pupils. They will provide differentiated work where necessary.

6. Identifying children with SEN and assessing their needs

The Code of Practice outlines a Graduated Approach to SEN Support, providing a model of assessment and identification. This response is seen as action that is additional to or different from the provision made as part of the school's usual differentiated curriculum.

Teachers are responsible and accountable for the progress and development of the pupils in their class including where pupils access support from learning support assistants. High quality teaching, differentiated for individual pupils, is the first step in responding to pupils who have or may have SEND.

Class teachers, supported by the Headteacher make regular assessments of progress for all pupils. These seek to identify pupils making less than expected progress given their age and individual circumstances. This can be characterised by progress which:

- is significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline
- fails to match or better the child's previous rate of progress
- fails to close the attainment gap between the child and their peers widens the attainment gap

This may include progress in areas other than attainment, for example, social needs.

Slow progress and low attainment will not automatically mean a pupil is recorded as having SEN.

7. Assessing and reviewing pupils' progress towards outcomes

We will follow the graduated approach and the four-part cycle of assess, plan, do, review. The class or subject teacher will work with the SENCO to carry out a clear analysis of the pupil's needs. This will draw on:

- The teacher's assessment and experience of the pupil
- Their previous progress, attainment and behaviour
- SENCO assessments, where relevant
- The individual's development in comparison to their peers and national data
- The views and experience of parents
- The pupil's own views
- Advice from external support services, if relevant

All teachers and support staff who work with the pupil will be made aware of their needs, the outcomes sought, the support provided, and any teaching strategies or approaches that are required. We will regularly review the effectiveness of the support and interventions and their impact on the pupil's progress

8. Complaints

- We strive to provide a good service to all pupils. We aim to work with parents and solve problems co-operatively. We always value comments and constructive criticism.
- Comments or complaints should be addressed to the class teacher in the first instance, and followed up with the SENCO where it is deemed necessary. Our school has a Complaints Policy which details the procedures parents can follow if they remain unsatisfied with any issues. The complaints Policy is available on our website.
